Democratic Meeting at Syracuse-Gen Skarkey-Gov. Seymour on the Admission of Southern Representatives in Synacuse, Monday, October 2, 1865.

Major-Gen. Slocum and ex-Gov. Seymour addressed a large public meeting here this evening. Gen. slocum paid a high tribute to Gen. Sherman and his other associates in the field, and explained his position fally in the present political campaign. He also explained his course with reference to Gov. Sharkey and the Mississing milling.

the Mississippi militia.

Both he and Gov. Seymour strongly indersed the golley of Fresident Johnson.

Gov. Seymour took strong ground in favor of the representatives from the Southern States being promptly admitted to sents in the next Congress, insisting that all who opposed their admission were not in favor of a reconstruction of the Union.
